Statement of Expectations:

Participation in the North Clackamas FFA Ag Camp includes activities on a 14-acre working farm that includes barns, livestock, greenhouses and pasture. Animals and facilities are used extensively in the activities. Participants will be supervised by high school student camp counselors and North Clackamas Ag instructors at all times. Participants will be near animals and working in the farm facilities with trained and skilled high school students handling the animals. Safety contract and outdoor clothing are required.

If your child has allergies, anxieties or problems being around animals or plants, please notify the Ag Camp instructor directly.

I have read and fully understand the Ag Camp Statement of Expectations.
